ABOUT

Art made with imagination, detail & love.

Diksha Suthar is an Ahmedabad-based Fine Artist and creative practitioner working across canvas painting, festive glass murals, wall art, traditional folk art and decorative handcrafted work.

With professional studio experience and a growing body of independent work, her practice spans multiple mediums — from ink sketches and pencil studies to large-scale acrylic murals and intricate Lippan mirror craft rooted in Gujarati tradition.

ARTISTIC DISCIPLINES

ARTIST STATEMENT

“I enjoy turning simple ideas, surfaces and materials into visually expressive pieces. My work is driven by colour, detail, experimentation and the joy of creating something by hand.”

— Diksha Suthar

DRAWING & SKETCH

Eye Study

Colour Pencil Realism

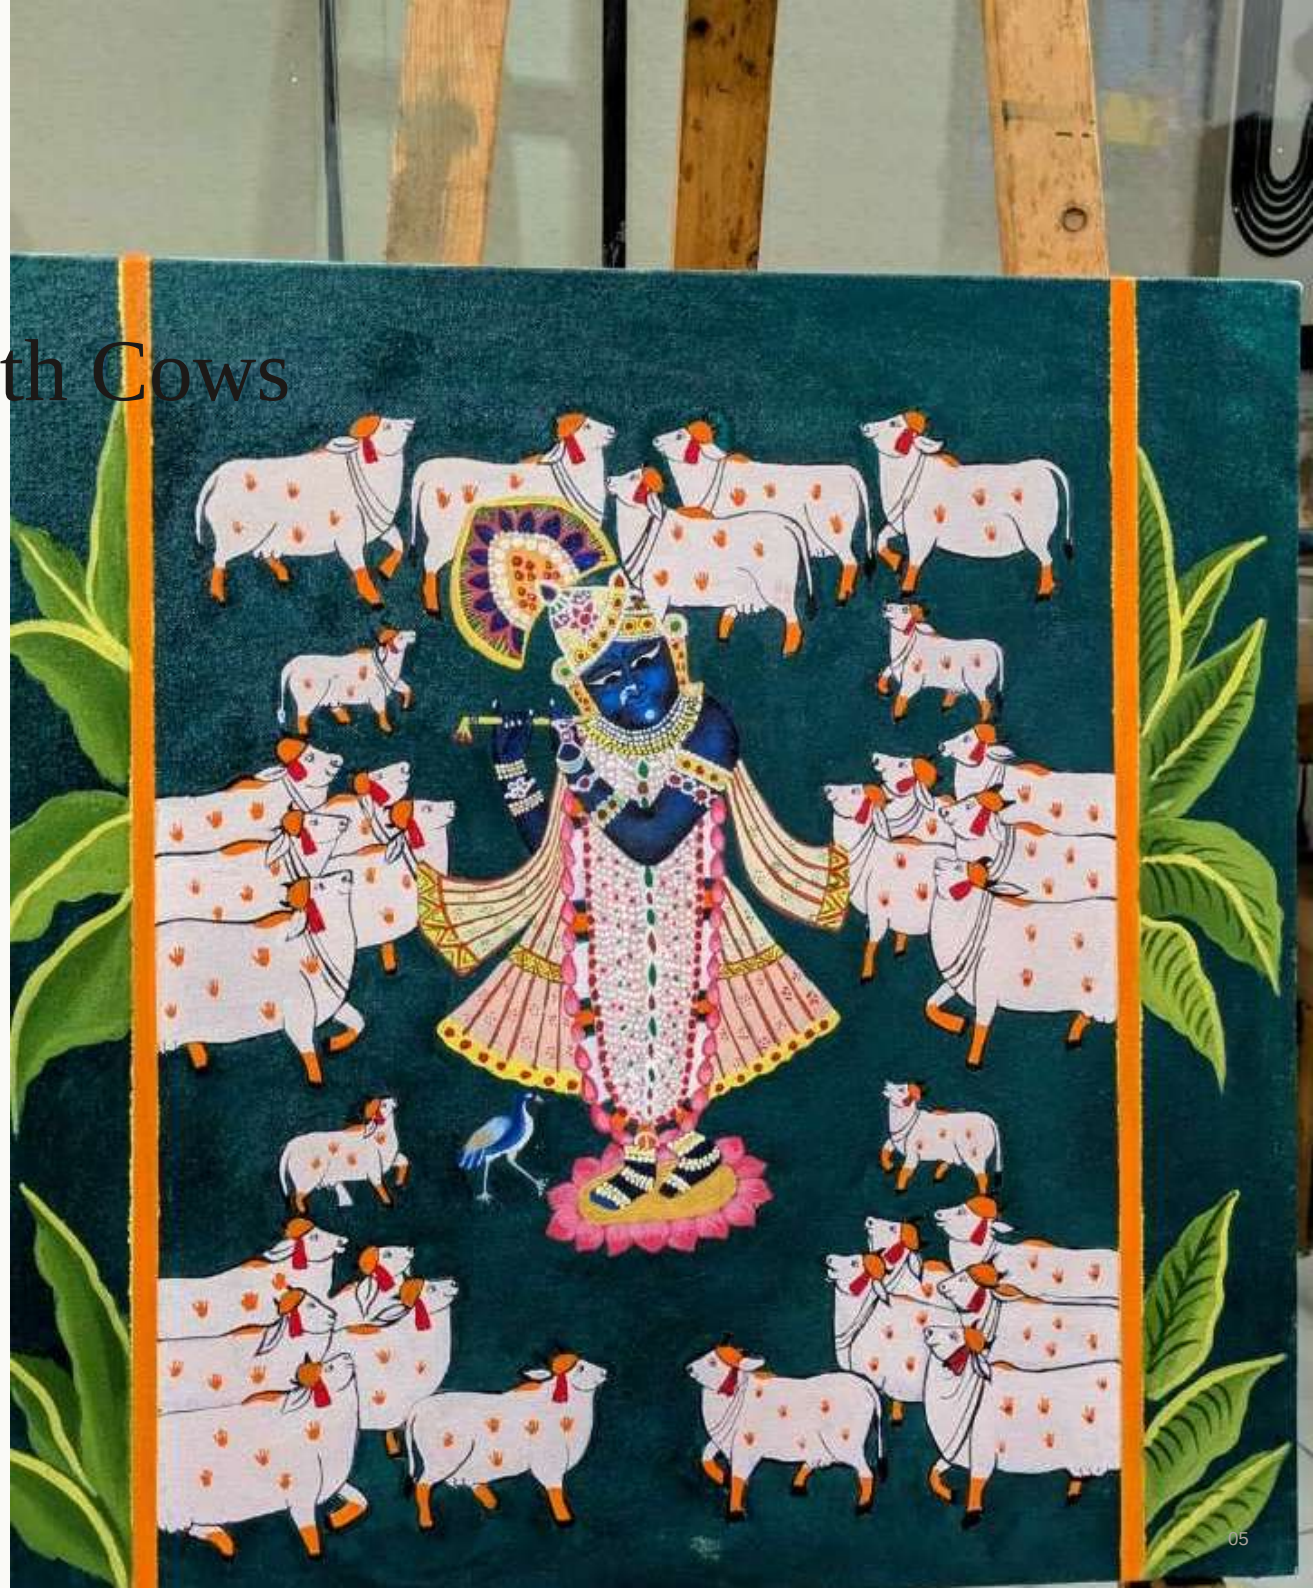

A hyperrealistic colour pencil study exploring the complexity of a single human eye — vibrant iris, delicate lashes and skin tones rendered with precise gradation.

FOLK & PICHWAI

Pichwai — Krishna with Cows

Folk & Canvas Art

Drawing from the rich Pichwai tradition, this canvas places an ornate Krishna figure at the centre of sacred cows on a deep teal ground.

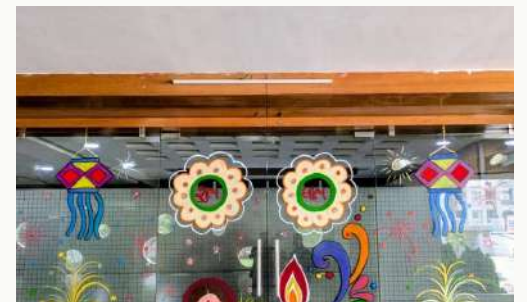

GLASS MURALS

Janmashtami Glass Mural

Festive Glass Painting

A hand-painted acrylic mural across a glass facade depicting Krishna, sacred motifs, overflowing matkas and lotus blooms in vivid festive colour.

A wider look at the practice

Where the practice takes shape

01

Canvas Art

Layered colour, portraiture, cultural motifs and expressive studies.

02

Wall Murals

Large-scale hand-painted surfaces and architectural storytelling.

03

Glass Art

Festive and decorative painting developed directly on glass.

04

Folk Art

Pichwai-inspired, Warli-inspired and traditional visual language.

05

Drawing & Sketch

Ink, pencil and colour-pencil studies focused on observation and detail.

06

Lippan Craft

Decorative handcrafted mirror work rooted in Gujarati craft traditions.

From idea to final expression

01

Idea

Understanding the surface, purpose, visual direction and creative possibilities.

02

Explore

Developing composition, colour, material and references through observation and experimentation.

03

Create

Transforming the idea into a handcrafted visual piece with attention to detail.

04

Refine

Balancing colour, texture and finishing details before completing the final artwork.

EXPERIENCE

Studio grounding. Independent growth.
